

Magnificent, spacious, intriguing – these are words that perfectly describe this home. The home's entrance is unusually located on the gable, which allows for a large, bright central living area that opens out in three directions. The kitchen and dining room are seamlessly connected to this area, thus giving the bedrooms peace and privacy. The luxuriously spacious bath and sauna are located in their own sauna wing.

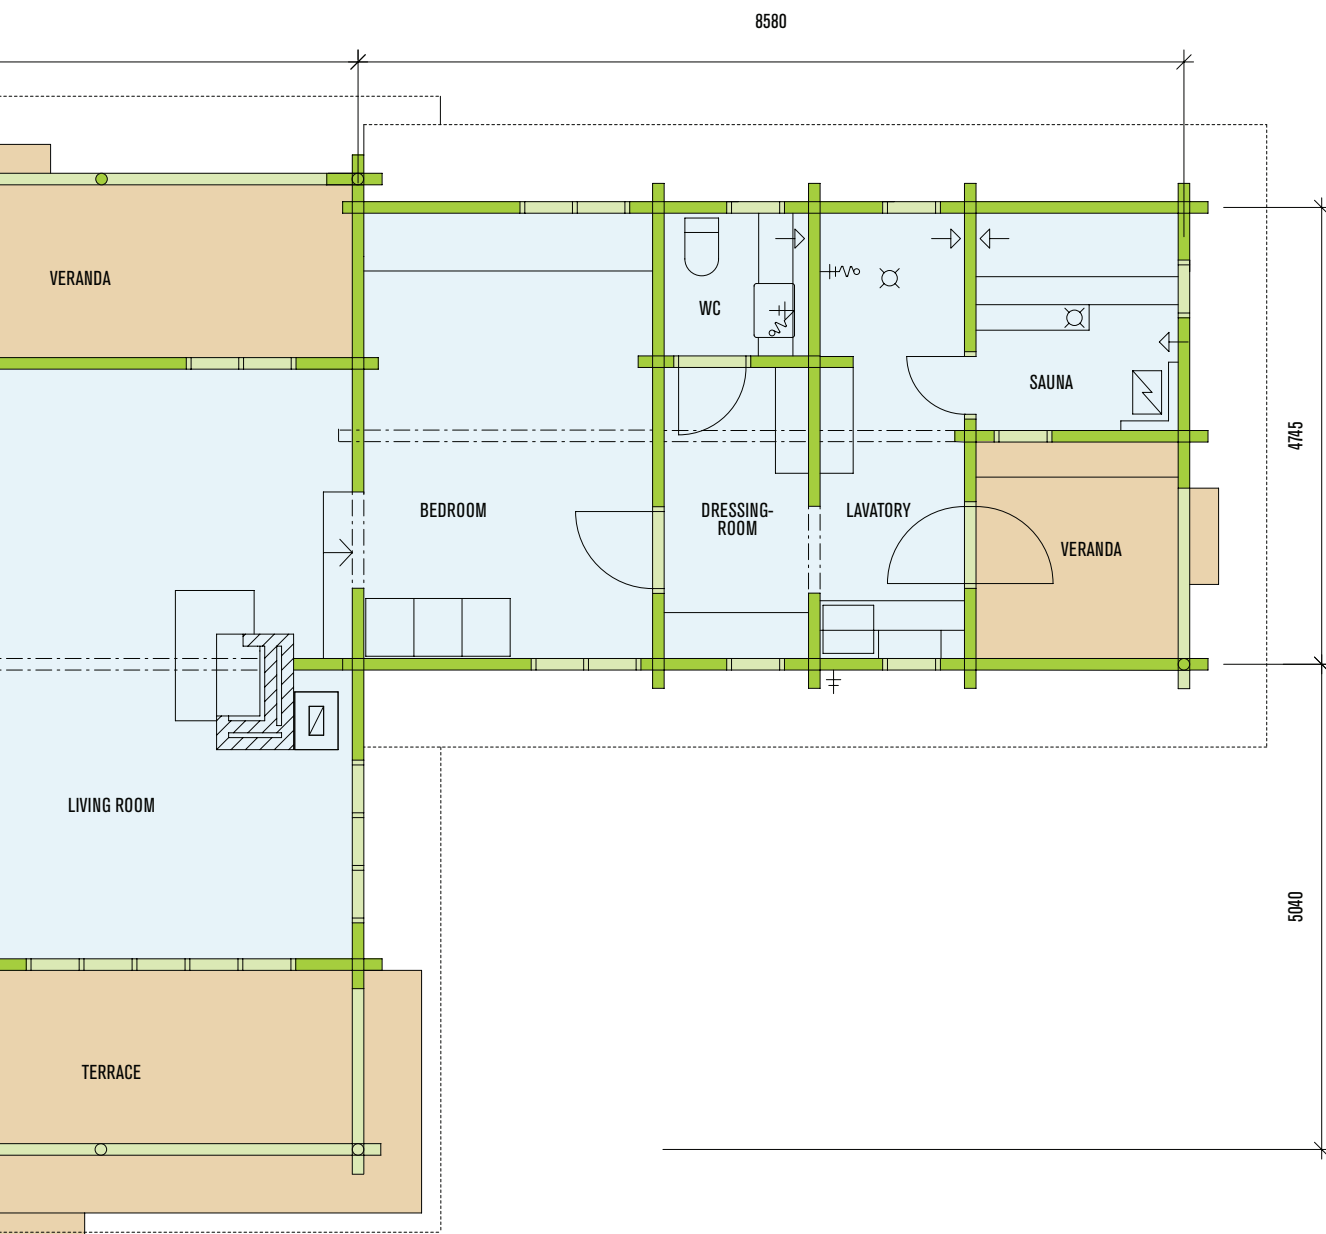

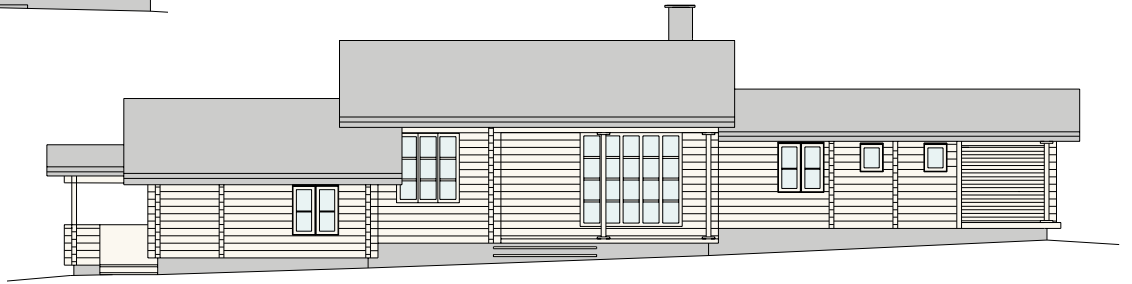

In this home you can enjoy the timeless, unique charm of a log home, together with the convenience and ease of modern amenities.
